

Monday Morning News 10/28/24

Director's Note

Happy Halloween! Apologies for not getting Monday Morning News out on a regular basis. October was a whirlwind month. Thank you to Over the Vines for hosting ECO's 3rd annual Wine Walk. We had great weather, lots of fun and fantastic music provided by Lounge Lizzards/Kristin Johnston. Over $14,000 was raised for our Youth Hunger Programs!!

Great things are happening in the Thrift Store. Lately sales have been ranging from $900-$1200 daily! That is amazing!! Departments have been very creative with the sales ideas. The book department ran a bag sale from October 10th-19th. Thirty two bags of books were sold (250-500 individual books) with sales totaling $192!

Vintage clothing sales at ECO, Feels Like Home and on ETSY are doing great. We have implemented the discount rotation at Feels Like Home that we have at the main Thrift Store. If you haven't checked out Feels Like Home lately you need too! Amy is keeping the store fresh with product changing out regularly. If you are looking for dips, soup mixes, or cheesecake mixes for the holidays or for a great treat you need to try the mixes at Feels Like Home. We will also be introducing new gift items at Feels Like home. We appreciate those who shop local.

Lastly if you are volunteering during the week during the noon hour please say hi to our Tider Transition Program students. ECO has partnered with the Edgerton High School to give additional young adults an opportunity to gain career and work schools as they transition from High School to post High School life.

Alyssa and her husband were blessed with baby Isla on September 28. Congrats!!
