Director's Note

Fall is nearing and the craziness of the last quarter of the year is upon us!

Chilimania is our kick-off event of the fall season. Thank you to our volunteers, staff and the crew from VFW Post 2708 that worked shifts on Friday and Saturday making this event a great one for ECO. We have some small containers of frozen chili leftover. Let a staff member know if you would like to try some.

Our next big event is the annual Over the Vines Wine Walk. Later this week we will have yard signs to distribute to advertise our signature event. Please see Trinity if you are willing to place one in your yard or place of business. We are in need of volunteers to assist with the event. Contact Sarah if you would like to serve at a pour station, sell Winezilla tickets or raffle tickets, or help serve food.

Very soon Tanya will be filling shifts for ECO's Salvation Army Red Kettle campaign. Shifts are available at Piggly Wiggly and Carl's Shell. Dollars raised through the bell ringing season stay in Edgerton providing a variety of services including emergency motel vouchers for those experiencing homelessness, transportation assistance, and utility bill payment assistance. Let her know if you work with a group that would like to sponsor a special day in November or Saturday or you have even 2 hours to share to ring bells.

Today was a busy day on the dock. Please note that September and October are the two busiest months for donations during the year. It is a blessing as it keeps the shelves stocked through the winter months when donations slow.
