Director's Note

At Edgerton Outreach, our crew is profoundly grateful for the unwavering dedication and flexibility exhibited by our volunteers, particularly amidst the recent changes in the layout of our retail Thrift Store. Your commitment to our mission and your willingness to adapt has been truly remarkable. As we navigate through transitions in store layout aimed at enhancing customer experience and optimizing operations, our volunteers have been instrumental in ensuring a seamless transition for both staff and patrons. The staff of Edgerton Outreach extends our sincerest appreciation to each and every volunteer for their invaluable contributions and support, which continue to enrich the lives of those we serve at Edgerton Outreach.
