ECO Note/Community News

What an incredible week of generosity! In just three short days, donors matched $5,500 in gifts, doubling the impact of every dollar to help local families in need. On top of that, our community came together to donate more than 4,600 pounds of food in a single week to support households affected by delays in their SNAP/FoodShare benefits. Your kindness and quick action are making a real difference—thank you!

Our Thrift Store also had a record-breaking week! On Saturday, November 9th, sales topped $1,500, setting a new single-day record. Every purchase and donation at the store helps fund our community programs, and we couldn't have done it without your continued support. Thank you for shopping, donating, and helping us keep the momentum going!

~ Sarah Williams, Executive Director

Volunteer Highlight

This week's Volunteer Highlight is Jean who has been volunteering at ECO for over 10 years! Jean volunteers in the Food Pantry every week.

Jean began volunteering to be among others and make new friends. Jean's favorite part of volunteering is being able to help others in need.

Jean's note to ECO is "I feel that we have a wonderful staff. Very kind and understanding people that are there for others."
