ECO Note/Community News

Edgerton Community Outreach (ECO) is once again bringing the community together this holiday season with its annual Thanksgiving Community Meal, to be held at St. John's Lutheran Church. The beloved event, which is free of charge and open to all, provides a warm and festive meal for anyone wishing to share in the spirit of the day. Dine in will occur from 1130am-1230pm.

ECO volunteers will be preparing a traditional Thanksgiving feast, including turkey, stuffing, potatoes and gravy, fruit fluff, rolls, and a generous slice of pie. This year, ECO anticipates serving approximately 650 meals, continuing a long-standing tradition of meeting community need with compassion and hospitality.

For those who are homebound or unable to attend in person, meal delivery is available. Community members may place delivery orders by calling 608-884-9593

Volunteer Highlight

This week's Volunteer Highlight is Rick who has been volunteering at ECO since March 2024! Rick volunteers in the Food Pantry every week.

Rick began volunteering to give back to the community and it's his favorite thing about volunteering.

Rick's note to ECO is "People that are here are so nice and pleasant to work with."
