ECO Note/Community News

ECO held its annual Thanksgiving Community meal on Thursday, 11/27, at St. John Lutheran Church in Edgerton. A no cost home cooked meal with all the "Thanksgiving" fixings is delivered in Edgerton and Milton or is served to those who choose to dine-in at the Church. A record number of close to 750 meals were served!

A huge appreciation for all volunteers and donations that help make this meal possible. Thank you!

~ Sarah Williams, Executive Director

Volunteer Highlight

This week's Volunteer Highlight is Madeline who has been volunteering at ECO for about 1 year! Madeline volunteers in the Food Pantry every week.

Madeline began volunteering because she lives in Edgerton and wanted to support & help her local community. Madeline's favorite part of volunteering is talking/meeting the clients and volunteers.

Madeline's note to ECO: "So impressed with the organization of the food pantry and the variety of foods available. I have learned so much! Thanks ECO!"
