Volunteer Highlight

This week's Volunteer Highlight is Dee who volunteers hanging clothing and putting clothing out on the floor racks. Dee has been a volunteer with Outreach since 2017!

Dee chose to volunteer with Outreach because she had retired and needed more to do.

Dee's favorite part of volunteering is giving back to her community and the pleasure of working with other volunteers!

Community News

The Porter Center located at 210 W Fulton Street is officially available for booking events! Our newly remodeled space blends 19th-century character with modern convenience. Once the city's oldest hotel and general store, the building has been thoughtfully updated to host small gatherings of up to 75 guests. Exposed brick, tall windows, and original architectural details create a warm, inviting atmosphere—perfect for birthday parties, baby showers, retirement celebrations, workshops, or community meetings. The venue also includes access to a commercial kitchen and flexible room layouts to fit a variety of event styles. You can find more information at www.edgertonoutreach.org by clicking on the Porter Center and Veteran's Housing Units @210 W Fulton icon. Contact Sarah Williams at (608) 884 - 9593 about booking your next event!
