ECO Note/Community News

"Coffee and Doughnuts with the Doughboys" was hosted on Saturday, February 7, 2026 at the Porter Center located at 210 W Fulton Street.

The Edgerton VFW hosted the community to coffee and doughnuts, Biscuits & Gravy, Chipped Beef on Toast (AKA-SOS), which were both staples in military chow halls.

A can opening competition with A GI P-38 took place at 0900 hours. The first lid off won $50 while 2nd and 3rd place also received a VFW trophy.

Don't miss out on the next event Saturday, March 7 from 8 am - 10 am at the Porter Center. Everyone is welcome!

Volunteer Highlight

Sherry began volunteering with ECO about 6 years ago! Sherry volunteers in the "stuff" checking items, pricing, and stocking shelves.

Sherry had been a frequent shopper and donator of the Edgerton Outreach. She has always believed Outreach was a good cause, and when a good friend asked her to join the volunteer staff she decided to take the step!

Sherry's favorite part of volunteering is the current volunteer position she has at ECO and the comradery with other volunteers and staff.

A note from Sherry, "I love that donations fund many different programs to help those in need in our community. I am very proud to be a volunteer at Edgerton Community Outreach."
